Dear Ferraro!

My fair expectations about your victory were dashed on 7th November. My heart was gradually sinking as I was hearing election results. I was absolutely sure of your victory but I lost my all bets which I had with my friends.

I was not in too good condition to write you soon. I was really very desperate and was trying to restore myself.

If you had won, I would have come definitely to see you — to congratulate you to U.S.A.

Anyhow take it normally. May God Bless you with pleasure in your public + personal life.

With Best Wishes
