Geraldine,

Attached/enclosed is a letter/enclosure I received today. As requested I am forwarding them on to you.

Kind regards,
[REDACTED]

elder [redacted] just graduated tops in her class at Richmond Hill High School and is working for the District Attorney's office on Queens Boulevard - is it Romano?; my youngest brother is going to start Cathedral Prep in September. My family has always had a "struggle" and so I enjoy what you have to say.

I am a dear friend of Mrs. [redacted] - a classmate of yours in college - she speaks highly of you and saw you recently at your reunion. [redacted] and [redacted] live here in South Jersey in Woodbury.

Good luck and I will keep you in my prayers and Masses - [redacted]

P.S. - I thought you might like to see what our Diocesan paper has to say!

Dear Mrs. Ferraro,
Congratulations!

I am a Catholic priest of the Diocese of Camden, New Jersey, ordained now eight years. My family lives in Kew Gardens (85-18 124 St.) - where I grew up - I'm the oldest of eight children - attended Our Lady of the Anacle School in Richmond Hill, Cathedral Prep in Clarkstown, Cathedral College in Douglaston and St. Charles Seminary in Philadelphia. Dad still lives at home on [redacted] (Mom died suddenly six years ago); my
