Dear Gerry,

Congratulations! I have watched your rise with great admiration and some awe. You are a wonderful woman and I'm more than glad and proud that you represent us at this moment in history.

You may have forgotten a conversation about seven years ago about women and work and goals. I asked you about your eventual goal and you surprised me by saying that a seat on the Supreme Court looked good to you. With your energy and dynamism, I had a difficult time envisioning you sitting on the bench, reading reams of materials and making decisions. Someday, I said to myself, maybe Senator. Well, you've far surpassed anyone's predictions for you.!

We're behind you all the way and ready to help the ticket in any way. My best greetings to John, who, by the way, looks almost as good as you on television.

Warmest regards,
