Dear REC Farraro:

Congrat.

Congratulations, and the best of ~~JULY 27 1984~~ in the upcoming Election; I'm sure you and Mr. Mondale will be elected!

You are a lovely, talented lady, ~~DISTRICT OFFICE~~ your acceptance speech, was delivered lady-like, perfectly measured, and in a superb manner, that would have done justice to any Candidate on any official threshold of any office, much less the highest in the land. You and Governor Cuomo were truly superb, and are a great credit not alone to New York, but to all struggling Americans. With both you and Mr. Mondale expressing beforehand the deep sense of obligation you have to the public, was indeed a bold and HONEST move; I'm sure that both of you were the products of honest and hard-working parents, especially your great Mothers, may the Lord bless them all, and I'm sure that both of you have passed along your forthright, and humane values to your own children. I am a displaced New Yorker, and I had to move away, and view it and you from a distance, and now I am ~~retired~~ and have great faith in you and Mr. Mondale, and all the other fine and honest people who will be your assistants. A special bouquet to your great Mother, and the best of everything to you, and all your family,

Gratefully,

[REDACTED]
Ocean Grove, N. J. 07756

(Am truly delighted to see a woman like you elected to so high an office)
