WASHINGTON OFFICE

Dear Congresswoman Ferraro,

Congratulation on your selection as Mr. Mondale's running mate.

I am so thrilled that you are going to be the Vice Presidential candidate, and so are many of your friends and neighbors in Forest Hills.

Since I met you and heard your speech last January at the National Council of Jewish Women's Institute in Washington I have been a fan of yours.
I am confident that your liberal but tough stance on the difficult problems our country faces will make you one of the best Vice Presidents.

Good luck on the campaign.

Sincerely, yours

JF
