Dear Congresswoman Ferraro,

Congratulations on your selection as Mr. Mondale’s running mate.

I am so thrilled that you are going to be the Vice Presidential candidate, and so are many of your friends and neighbors in Forest Hills.

Since I met you and heard your speech last January at the National Council of Jewish Women’s Institute in Washington I have been a fan of yours. I am confident that your liberal but tough stance on the difficult problems our country faces will make you one of the best Vice Presidents.

Good luck on the campaign.

Sincerely,
