My dear VP Geraldine Ferraro:

I just heard that a recently taken poll discloses that the chances of the Democratic candidates have jumped way up since you were selected by Mondale to run with him.

We have also previously heard that there is a small percentage who claim you don't have the experience for the job. Hogwash!

FDR did a pretty good job when he was elected in 1932 altho he had never been Pres. before. I also read around that time that FDR was a "boyscout" when he first entered politics. Most people become proven great when responsibility is placed on their shoulders. People must think an awful lot of your potential for you to get where you are now. People with half a brain DEVELOP! Any thinking American knows in their heart that you have enough potential do solve any problem that Bush or any other candidate can solve. This reminds me of the famous story of the youngster who cannot get a job because he has no experience, and he has no experience because he cannot get a job.

In other words, the Republicans are starting to get scared because they feel the people might just throw them out.

Good luck to you and VP Mondale. Its time for a change. NOW...

Every person is unique. I'm crazy about Mario Cuomo, you, and Fritz Mondale. I hope you get to Asbury Park during your campaign.

I recently retired from the Hackensack, NJ Post Office and moved to this Senior citizen project. Back in Hackensack I was Pres. of the B'nai B'rith there. Most of my friends confirm that you gave the Democrats a darn good shot in the arm. You are making history and people are just itching to make you the first female Vice President. And with your qualifications, we know you will not let us down.
