11 October 1984.

Dear Geraldine,

I am writing to you from New Zealand to ask you to support us in our decision not to allow nuclear ships into our harbours.

There are a great number of people here who would like to see a Nuclear Free Pacific and I feel that any pressure the United States applies will only alienate people here further.

I wish you all the best in the forthcoming election and would like to say how much I admire Walter Mondale for his choice, good luck.
