Dear Steve et al,

On behalf of a colleague of mine, [REDACTED] [REDACTED] and myself, I write to volunteer our help to effect the election of Mr. Mondale and Mrs. Ferraro on November 6.

[REDACTED] [REDACTED] is associate dean of students at Kean College of New Jersey, holds a master's degree from Ohio State University, is in her early thirties, is a native New Jerseyan and has been an administrator at the College since 1979. Also a native New Jerseyan I, at age 47, hold two degrees from Kean College (1974;1976), have been on staff at the College for seven years, served for five of those years as director of affirmative action, and am presently responsible for the College's governmental and corporate relations activity.

[REDACTED] [REDACTED] and I are available as deployed. We are each willing and able to distribute literature or to staff telephone banks. We feel though that we would be best utilized if needed to speak on behalf of the ticket. We assume that both of the candidates will receive numerous invitations, many of which will require coverage that will necessitate the use of surrogate speakers. We see ourselves, understandably, as surrogates for those invitations that involve the vice-presidential nominee.

We could address some small or medium-sized gatherings especially in the Union County-Essex County corridor. I'd be able to venture to Somerset, Morris or Middlesex counties, also.

Mr. [REDACTED]

Both [REDACTED] and I have been life-long Democrats and each of us have worked on the periphery of national and state campaigns before. Neither of us have ever felt as motivated to take this kind of initiative on behalf of a ticket, however, until now.

Good luck! Let us hear from you if we can be of any help.

Sincerely,

[REDACTED]
