Dear Editor,

President Reagan at his latest Press Conference last week said "he will take the High Road," yet after he invited himself to Hoboken on the day the people Honored St Ann, he stayed ^{on} the low Road by committing to tell those devout people that he is a Lapsed Catholic. Let me explain: Pres. Reagan and his older brother Moon were Baptized Catholics and practiced their Faith until their Father died. At that time both left the Church.

A few years later his brother Moon returned and to this day is a practicing Catholic, but not Pres Reagan. He never returned on Sunday he goes to no Church his excuse "he worries about the safety of the other people in Church" but he didn't worry about the safety of thousands of Catholics in Hoboken

on Thursday July 26."

This County deserves a Real True American Pres. who will worry about all the people all the time, not just a handful of worshippers in some Church on Sunday.

THIS IS THE MAN THAT WANTS TO BE RE-ELECTED?

Sincerely yours

Congresswoman Geraldine Ferraro.

Dear Congresswoman,

Congratulations on being nominated to run as our Vice Pres.
Both Walter Mondale & you will win.
I know it will be a very dirty campaign
but I am enclosing a copy of a letter that I sent to "The Star Ledger" Newark N.J. wonder will they print it? It is the Best Kept Secret about Pres. Reagan.

I got my information from "Ireland's Own" June 8th issue - it is printed at Weyford^{inland} & is a weekly magazine. Please let Walter Mondale know about this as I don't know where to write him.

I know where you stand on "The Irish Question" but where does Mondale really stand?
Are you both going to make that a Campaign issue?
after Labour Day if ye started

2
firing off salvos, ye would mean any Irish vote, all 43
million of them.

Margaret Thatcher does not like you she knows she has met her match J.J.

I'll bet the taxpayers of this country are picking up the tab some how for the £50 million pounds a week that the coal strike is costing the British Exchequer now in it's 21st week.

Here are three (3) things that come to mind that Reagan changed his mind about.

- 1) HIS FIRST MARRIAGE
- 2) HIS Faith.
- 3) His Party (from Dem to Rep.).

Boy I am being mean today, but I have only begun.

God Bless you always

I remain
yours Sincerely,

P.S. I really Love you
Hair.
