According to his business card the author is a defense counsel in the court of cassation. The message on the first page says that he hopes the diffusion of the inclosed "messages of Christ" in the American language /apparently GF is to see to this/ will save a world which is dancing and partying on top of a powder keg.

The title of the book is The Purifying Justice of God on the Planet Earth. I will allow this title to speak for itself. If you want the book translated in full or in part, please hesitate to call me.
