The Honorable Geraldine A. Ferraro
United States House of Representatives
312 Cannon House Office Building
Washington, DC 20515

Dear Congresswoman Ferraro:

It was with great pleasure that I learned of your selection as Mr. Mondale's running mate, and would like to offer you my congratulations. This is, without a doubt, an excellent move for the Democratic ticket. I can't say enough about the good impressions you left me with during your visit to Buffalo in March, and I'm sure there are many others who feel the same way.

While the need for gimpy-legged advance people in a presidential campaign is undoubtedly limited, I would still like to know if there is anything I can do to assist the campaign (besides, I'm not nearly as gimpy as I was before). If there is any person in particular I should speak with in this area, please let me know. Thank you.

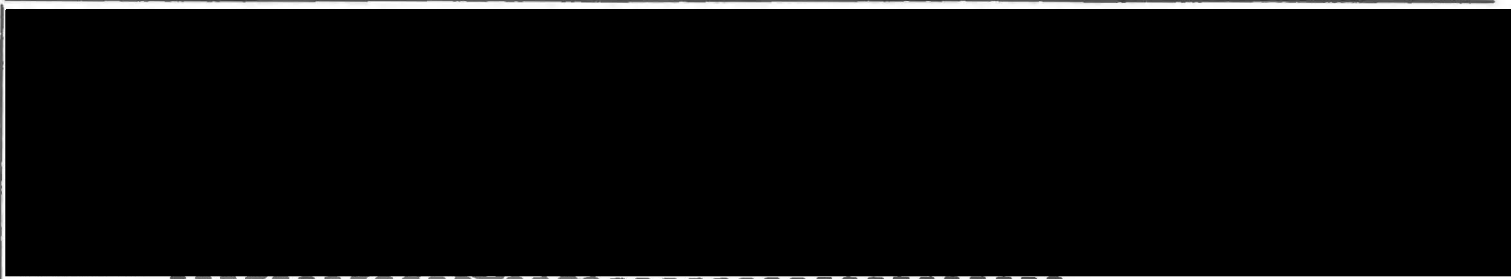

Wishing you the best of luck, I remain

Sincerely yours,
