Dear Ms. Ferraro:

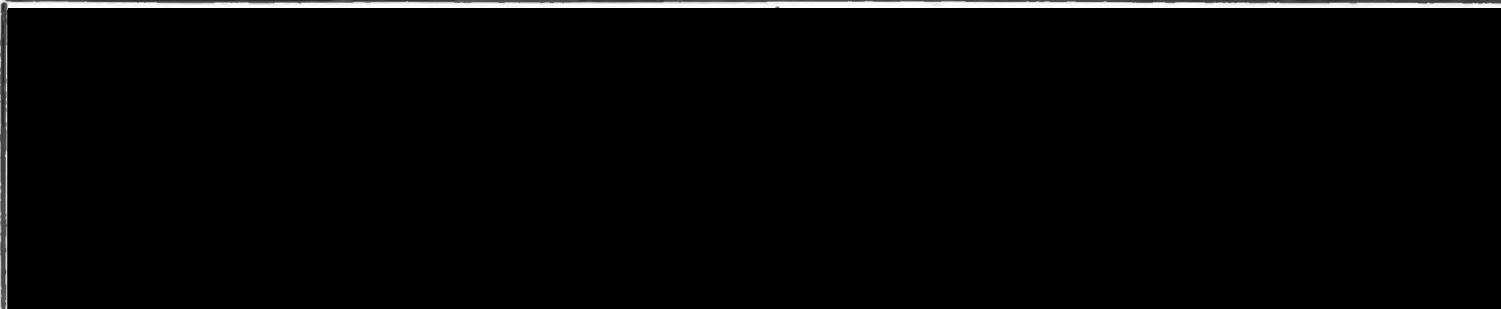

Please accept my sincerest congratulations on being named Walter Mondale's running mate. I first heard you speak in July of last summer when I attended American University's Washington Summer Seminar, and was highly impressed with your efficiency, honesty and energy. I came home and told anyone who would listen that you would be named the Vice Presidential candidate in 1984. Thank you for proving me right.

I will be a freshman at Georgetown University this fall, and I wish to volunteer to work on your campaign either in Washington or here in New York until I leave for college. Please advise me on who to contact in this matter.

With best wishes on what is sure to be an exciting and victorious race,

Sincerely,
