Dear Genevieve -

The political game can get real tough out there at times. As a Vice Presidential candidate you and your family will no longer have any privacy and I am sure there will be times when you will ask yourself - "is it worth it?"

These programs are being offered up to exclude you in order to be apart and feel you a strong person a survivor. It won't be long but it will be worth it. You are, now a part of American history.

I am a pretty good copy of an old widow Stalin's America. I am proud of my Stalin and American heritage. My prayers and best wishes are with you.
