HUMANITY AND LOVE NOT INFRINGEMENT

July 13, 1984

Dear Senator G. Ferraro,

Even though I'm an independent voter and registered as such at the Polls. I would like very much to receive material in regards to Vice President and your Campaign for the top offices of the Country. I'd be happy to carry the sticker of your names on my car, also to wear buttons to the same effect. If it possible one would like to get one of your straw hats even if it would cost me a few dollars. I personally owe both President Carter and Vice President Mondale as they did great to brighten up my life while in office. As you know Reagan has done nothing at all for the Senior Citizens Disabled or for people with other forms of handicapped. I surely pray that when both of you get into office that much more consideration will be given to us people. If Reagan gets in again it means that I'll have to put together a canister and go begging on the streets for alms. Being a Senior who has had a great deal of sickness these past years a change of menu is definitely needed, I wish one could express himself much better, but the hardship of sickness has taken its toll.

Congratulation to both Vice President Mondale and yourself. Just think you'll be in the White House on January 20, 1985. What really more can one ask at this time.

Sincerely yours,

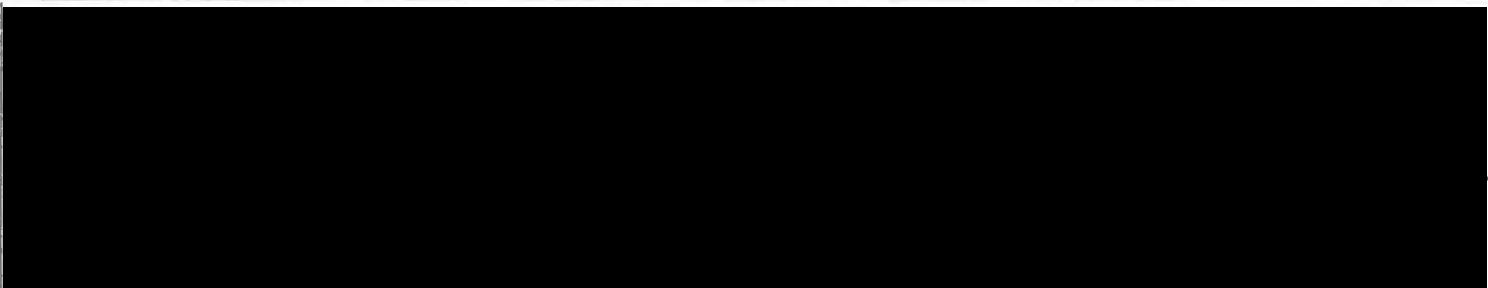

Peekskill, N.Y. 10566.

P.S. I could give out your literature at the Nutrition Center one goes too also I belong to the Gray Panthers Organization
