The Hon. Geraldine A. Ferraro
65-31 Grand Avenue
Maspeth, NY 11378

Dear Congressperson Ferraro:

This note is to transmit my heartfelt congratulations upon your timely accession to Vice President elect on the Mondale team.

The implications of roles that you can display before the eyes of God and the American people are humbling indeed. The models of strength, courage and fortitude that you can share intelligently and consistently with the American people may lend tremendous hope at a time when the world is in severe crisis. The values and ethics that you voiced in your acceptance speech are important and should be expanded upon in your campaign so that we who live outside of your district can better understand.

[Although I am proud to be a Black man, please be advised that I am extremely proud of you, as will be expressed in my vote for the Mondale-Ferraro ticket.]

May God be with you and your family; and help you to lead this country toward peace and humanistic treatment of our needy elderly and others.

Sincerely,
