Dear Mrs. Ferraro,

I have just listened to the very exciting announcement made by Vice-President Mondale informing the American People of his choice of you as the Democratic candidate for Vice President in the coming National election.

First, let me extend to you my heartiest congratulations and best wishes of "MAZAL TOV" on this historic action. I know that members of my Congregation - the Jewish Center of Forest Hills West on Dry Harbor Road here in Queens and all Americans of all races, creeds, colors and religions throughout this great country join me in these expressions of good wishes and success in this newest and most vital venture in your life.

I together with millions of Americans listened (I heard the words of Vice-President Mondale and yourself on the radio) to the deeply sincere and meaningful thoughts which both of you expressed in this momentous American event.

And so, we all join together in wishing you, Vice- President Mondale and the entire Democaratic Party best fortune, victory and the achievement of the high and significant goals which you have set for your administration in the White House.

Mrs. Geffen and my family join me in these best wishes to you and your dear family on this most happy occasion.

Sincerely yours,

Rabbi, Jewish Center Forest Hills West
