Geraldine A. Ferraro

December 13, 1984

Dear [REDACTED],

I was delighted to receive your good wishes regarding my candidacy for Vice President. Thank you for your warm words of support and for taking the time to share them with me.

As we travelled across the country, we were touched by the energy and enthusiasm of the American people. We reached out to them, and they, in turn, responded to us. We raised hopes for a better future and served the cause of justice.

Please let your father know that he can send the newsletter to my District Office in New York. I will be maintaining that office after my term expires in January.

With best wishes,

Cordially,

Geraldine A. Ferraro
Member of Congress
