Dear M/s Ferraro,

What landslide?

Any impropriety in my addressing you thus is due to pure ignorance.
Please excuse it, as I mean no offence

I have followed your and Mr Mondale's campaign with much hope and and I am sorry you did not have the success you deserved. I saw your T.V debates on Canadian television and I have studied your literature which I secured from your Committee Room in Brattleboro, Vermont.

I feel that you are simply before your time, and I hope that you will stay on the field and try again

As for 59-41. Mrs Thatcher got only 43 per cent, and look what it did for her. Sadly also, look at what it is doing for us!

Best wishes
