Dear Congresswoman Ferraro,

On behalf of the 10,000 Letter Carriers delivering mail in the Bronx and Manhattan, I extend their sincere congratulations.

I have heard you speak to special groups several times and was impressed with your articulate deliveries, mannerisms, and candor. At one of these meetings you alluded to money being the name of the game and if they liked what you stood for and your brand of representation, then you would appreciate a donation to help you stay in office. This occurred at Anton's, a few years ago where Jerry Kane was conducting a legislative seminar.

I have endorsed Walter Mondale for the Presidency as the Labor Candidate and predicted he would be elected.

His choice for a Vice-President was not only historical but also the wisest.

The combination of Mondale and Ferraro will stand tall and thus enhance the team producing a more electable Democratic slate.

I have no doubts that you will be the next Vice-President of the United States. Congratulations again.

Regards,
