WASHINGTON OFFICE

Dear Ms. Ferraro,

Living in the Toronto area we get the three major U.S. television networks and so are able to follow the U.S. election quite closely. The book I am sending should give you some good ammunition. I suggest that you get as many copies as possible to comedians like Johnny Carson. Ask major newspapers and media to answer the charge made in the introduction, p.17, that Reagan is let off easy by the media. If possible put copies in first class on major airlines and in doctors waiting rooms. Get a copy to Phil Donahue and suggest that he have the authors on one of his programs before the election.

I am frightened to think that Reagan may be elected again. He is either lacking in intelligence or is deliberately misleading the people.

Try to think of an upbeat slogan for the democratic campaign. For example: "If you think this is good now... wait until we really get rolling." Or something to that effect but worded better. I get the feeling that the American people don't want to look at the down side. Start saying, "We CAN do better." Good luck to you and Mr. Mondale.

Yours truly,
