WASHINGTON OFFICE

Congresswoman Geraldine Ferraro
United States Congress
House of Representatives
Washington, D.C.

October 15, 1984

Dear Congresswoman Ferraro:

Congratulations on your nomination as Vice-Presidential Running Mate for the upcoming election. You are doing a great job, and sincerely hope that you and Walter Mondale win the upcoming election.

I have a very special request of you. My daughter will be graduating law school in January. (She finishes her course-work at that time, in the United States). Our family will be holding a party to honor her accomplishments over the past four years. She has recently spoken very highly about not only you as the first woman nominated as Vice-Presidential Candidate but your accomplishments as a woman lawyer. Our family and her personal background is somewhat similar to yours. I thought she would be greatly honored if you were to sign your name to this Time cover and we could present this to her at her party. It would be a memento that she would appreciate very much.

I am a United States Citizen, presently working in Canada. In my discussion with Canadians, the general agreement with a majority of people is that you are an individual who is not only very intelligent but articulates your political philosophy and beliefs very clearly. I will be returning to the United States in the near future and hope very much that it is with you as the Vice-President of the United States. No matter what happens in the future election I would hope that you certainly consider pursuing the highest political offices in the Federal Government.

Good luck in the future, to you and your family.

Thank you.

Sincerely,
