WASHINGTON OFFICE

Dear Ms. Ferraro:

I would be pleased to see the Democrats win the coming election, although as a Canadian it's really none of my business.

I have been wondering if it would prove effective if in wrapping up one or more of your speeches on national t.v. you stressed that Reagan's mounting deficit will have a devastating effect on their children and future generations, (as you have already been saying) and asking all good Americans who must be concerned, to vote for a change in Administration, regardless of political persuasion.

Following this you might use as a slogan:
"Let's send Mondale to the White House and Reagan to the outhouse (OUTHOUSE)"

Best of luck's
