Ms. Geraldine Ferraro
Vice Presidential Candidate of the Democratic Party
New York
USA.

Dear Madam,

I know I should not disturb you from this corner of the world but believe me I could not help it! I am a medical student, I lead a group of medical students here in the Chittagong Medical College. ~~xxxx~~ This is a study group, it has nothing to do with politics but we do observe politics especially that of the USA as it is a nation of nations. Our members believe in Democracy _____ freedom of talking and freedom of choice.

Please don't take my letter as an attempt to reconcile you at your defeat, rather take it as a letter of congratulations. The whole day we were with the ~~xxxx~~ radio set tuned to the VOA. There we listened to the election results every minute, it ~~was~~ was near about 10 o' clock in the morning here, next to Mr. Mendale we had the fortune to listen to your address. And that's why my letter comes to you madam. Such a courageous address it was, you started with joke! Please madam take my heartiest congratulations for your successful big fight. The same from my group also. We can only pray for your future success of which I'm confident.

Finally I beg pardon for destroying your valuable time especially in a circumstance where our appreciation can add or detract nothing to a personality like you! Hope to hear from you, if you have enough time.

Thanking you.

Sincerely,

██████████ ██████████
President, 'The Group'
