9-27-1984

Letter from an Italian Journalist to Geraldine Ferraro

Geraldine Ferraro

Follow this and additional works at: https://ir.lawnet.fordham.edu/vice_presidential_campaign_correspondence_1984_international

Part of the Law Commons

Recommended Citation

https://ir.lawnet.fordham.edu/vice_presidential_campaign_correspondence_1984_international/291

This Book is brought to you for free and open access by the Correspondence at FLASH: The Fordham Law Archive of Scholarship and History. It has been accepted for inclusion in International by an authorized administrator of FLASH: The Fordham Law Archive of Scholarship and History. For more information, please contact tmelnick@law.fordham.edu.
question for Kpa Ferrero

giornalista
Washington 1984, 24 Sept

Dear Mr. Ferrer,

I'm an Italian journalist, [redacted] of "Il Gazzettino" di Venezia. Italian people watch with great interest and sympathy your activity and your political success.

I hope you can find the time - I know you are very busy for the elections - and answer to these questions for an interview on my daily newspaper that - I hope - can be useful to give a better knowledge of your personality in my country.

Sincerely
0. What was the influence, in your political life, to be Italian-American and to be woman?

1. How did you begin your political career?

2. Why did you choose the Democratic Party?

3. Somebody says that Italian ethnic group is becoming more and more conservative, richer. What about it?

4. When shall you come in Italy?

5. What Italian towns did you visit and what do you want to see (or see again?)

6. What do you think about Venice, her beauties and her salvation?

7. Often in the world - and also in the States - to speak of Italy is to speak of Mafia. What can be done to efface this prejudice?

8. How do you see the ethical and religious problems and the political choices?