Dear ██████████:

Thank you for writing to ask me to participate in your new publishing endeavor. I am sorry not to have responded sooner, but my arduous campaign schedule made it impossible.

For the same reason, I am afraid I shall be unable to undertake any interviews with your magazine between now and our national election November 6.

If you could arrange to send me a copy of your magazine, perhaps it would be possible to work something out after the election. I cannot make any commitments at this time, of course, but I would be delighted to hear from you again.

Best of luck with the magazine.

Cordially,

Geraldine A. Ferraro
