To Vice President-to-be, ~~SENATOR~~ CONGRESSWOMAN
Geraldine Ferraro. WASHINGTON OFFICE

Dear Miss Ferraro,

To your 49th anniversary on Aug 26 I send you my heart-iest best congratulations.

As said in the headline I sincerely wish you to have this title.. not because I in any case want a woman there, but because it seems to me that YOU have brilliant powers and a good attitude to things.. Recently I saw a program on you in my TV, and that was very impressive. I am an old man (maybe?) of 64 and still a collector of autographs. I should be very much honoured if YOU would be so kind as to present me with yours (WRITTEN BY HAND, please, NO FACSIMILE in any way), perhaps with a few words extra, maybe also a HANDsigned picture. That would be a treasure in my collection, I can assure you. I wish for you - AND FOR ALL OF US - that you will become Vice President.

Kindest regard,

Yours sincerely,

senior master

PS: Mr Mondale once sent me a facsimile signature , so -alas - he is not in my collection of autographs, and I am sorry about that.
