The Biblical Prophets as Lawyers for the Poor

Cover Page Footnote

This was given in a conference at Fordham University Law School called "Religious Values and Lawyering for the Poor," January 31, 2003. Earlier versions of it were included in two earlier conferences: "Faith and the Law," Ohio State Bar Association, November 14, 2001, Columbus, Ohio; and "Lawyers and Social Healing," College of St. Catharine, St. Paul, Minnesota, February 15, 2002. I am grateful to those who attended each of these three programs, for valuable contributions to my project on lawyers as prophets, of which this is first of three parts. The second and third parts have been published: Lawyers as Prophets, 15 ST. THOMAS L. REV. 469 (2003); and Lawyers and the Biblical Prophets, 17 NOTRE DAME J.L. ETHICS, AND PUB. POL'Y 521 (2003).
