The pictures contained “herein” will allow us to reflect on the three or four years spent at Fordham University School of Law. It is hard to imagine that so much time has passed so quickly. “Summation” has therefore, forthwith, hereof, afortiori, quid pro quo, status quo, heretofore, immortalized these years.

For all of us there were times when we wondered, “Why am I here?” or “Do I belong?” Three or four years ago we were wide-eyed frightened first year students with great expectations. Today we are the graduating class of 1990, more mature, more confident. Hopefully we now know why we were here and feel sure we belonged.

We will continue to mature and develop throughout our careers. We must, however, do that through integrity and honesty — for that is the only way to realize our original expectations.

Congratulations and Good Luck Class of 1990.

CONGRATULATIONS TO THE GRADUATES

Fordham Law School Graduates,
For your success we pray
As you prepare for your exams
And await Graduation Day.
Abe Lincoln would be very proud,
And quite a lot surprised:
That half the Law School Graduates —
Of young ladies is comprised.

Your three or four years of intensive study
Of “policies” and “rules” —In the Hallowed Halls of Fordham:
The best of all Law Schools —
From that Fountain of True Genius,
With “briefs” and “torts” acquired —
Our fledgling legal eagles
With true justice are inspired.

On the twenty-first of May
In Avery Fisher Hall,
As you receive your prized diplomas,
“Good luck”, I wish you all.
In this graduating class:
A future President?
Quite possible, I do declare:
You — to Fordham Law School — went!

We thank you, John D. Feerick,
The School’s illustrious Dean —
Whose parents came from Mayo —
In the Isle of Emerald Green.
We thank you, learned Faculty —
Today, and times gone by
Secretaries, and all the staff
Who keep Fordham’s credit high!

— Luke Carolan

Football

1) Motion to Destroy (Odds: 3-2): Injuries to key personnel have ignited the rest of the team to pick up the slack. Capable back-up QB Ed Wolfe should be able to find Deep-Threat Phil Castellano. Coach Brad Mitchell has directed this team to an undefeated season, but the week off due to a first round “bye” could dampen the Team’s intensity.

2) 71-ers (Odds: 3-1): Captain Joe Cartafalsa has assembled a group of hungry 1-L’s. Despite an undefeated season, inexperience could spoil playoff dreams.

3) Kelly’s Bulldogs (Odds: 5-1): Must get big plays from their big players. Scrambling QB Mark Lee must connect with speedy Sean Madden on offense. Look for Chris “The Irish Dragon” Mone and “Bulldog” McSloy to dominate.

4) Undersigned (Odds: 8-1): Ferocious defense led by Rand Neveloff has turned team around in second half of the season. Rob Casper should have a few more “int’s” in the playoffs, and Stuart Chasanoff leads an unpredictable offense.

5) Avengers of Lloyd’s Arm (Odds: 15-1): Driven by the memory of their fallen comrade, “Avengers” have shown stark improvement over their last season. Offense is led by QB Ed Rose and Captain Ken Regan.

6) Skirt Denied (Odds: 21-1): More important career pursuits have stymied veteran powerhouse “Skirt”. Look for them Captain John Cannistraci to revive glory of years ago with standouts Tom Tether, George Kostakus and Donnie Feerick.

7) Crib Death (Odds: 99-1): Miraculously winless during the regular season, the “Budin Express” looks to get back on the track in the playoffs. Team must rally around return specialist Grant “The Rocket” Esposito and pass rushing Jeff “Too-Tall” Altabef.
REASONS WHY FORDHAM NEEDS YOUR ALUMNI DOLLARS

BY ED NEMCHEK, KEITH STURCULA & ADAM SIPRE OF "THE LEGAL FICTION"

1. It's been discovered that the first floor men's restroom has actually been the site of a heinous biochemical experiment secretly conducted by the Army. The experiment unleashed a nearly indestructible strain of toxic chemicals and the restroom is no longer safe for humans. To disinfect it -- we need your alumni bucks!

2. A recent study indicates that the Fordham Computer Center hates law students, so that future generations of Fordham Law students can have their own computer center and get something accomplished for once -- we need your bucks!

3. This year's S.B.A. boat ride sold fewer tickets than expected and lost $1,276,415.10. So future classes can have T.A.N.G.S. -- we need your support.

4. The average cost of books per semester at Biboju-Juris now exceeds the cost of tuition. We need your bucks so one-l's can have books to read for first year classes.

REMEMBER: Fordham is the best damn Jesuit law school in the nation. (With your alumni dollars, we can keep it that way. Thank you.)
